Look, of course, nuud is enthusiastic about nuud. And we pour all that enthusiasm into our mints, pastes and oils.

But it's our mantra never to go over the top.

However, our users see it otherwise.

Would highly recommend this! Vegan and completely sustainable and great for your skin too. I liberally use a tiny amount once a week, and that's me: a well-surgeon who works long hours, also works out a lot, juggles etc. No smell or issues at all! Great tube too! Make the world, for you and the planet!

I love the whole ethos of this product and the eco friendly packaging. Each application seems to be lasting longer than I expected. I've proved to my four daughters it works and they are all keen to change and become eco warriors!

Fantastic product! Currently in 48 degree heat and having to wash every three days. Great that it's cruelty and environmentally friendly too. Well done nuud!

It makes us incredibly proud that you talk about us like this. It seems you value all value that we do our best to deliver fresh attempts to the world.

I have been using nuud for the last 8 weeks and have been extremely pleased with it. Use it every 3 days. It works really well and prevents any unpleasant smells, even when I have been to my regular Zumba class! Some away smelling the same as when I started. I would highly recommend nuud to everyone.

Nuud is a superb product. It works spectacularly well for me. I use it about once every 4-5 days which sounds odd, but almost isn't! I still can't quite believe how good it is. Brilliant invention.
